

The Personal Development Curriculum at Hookstone Chase Primary

- PD = beyond the academic
- Impact evident beyond their school lifetime
- Diverse
- Confidence, resilience & knowledge to cope with external influences
- Preparing for adult life in society – plentiful opportunities
- Responsible, respectful & active citizens
- Fundamental British Values
- Equality of opportunity, difference = positive
- Protected characteristics
- Inclusive environment
- Curriculum - Citizenship, RE, PHSE, RSE & healthy relationships
- Extracurricular activities – range & take-up
- *Curriculum, assemblies, wider opportunities, visits, discussions, literature
- *Online risks incl. wellbeing, awareness of support offered
- Physical health – nutrition & exercise in & beyond school day
- Readiness for next stage of education
- Spiritual, moral, social & cultural education:

-Spiritual: respect, beliefs, awe & wonder, imagination creativity, reflection

-Moral: right & wrong, the law, consequences of behaviour, debate respectfully

-Social: involved in community (volunteering), conflict resolution, acceptance & engagement with FBV

-Cultural: heritage, appreciation of cultures in school, value similarities and differences, knowledge of parliamentary system, participate in artistic, musical, sporting & cultural opps, interest & respect for different faiths.

- RSE